

Figure S3: Minimum spanning tree representing the repartition of our dataset (in red) within the worldwide diversity of Staphylococcus aureus isolates (in green). The size of the circles is a function of the number of isolates.